STEP 2 Save water

One of the planet's most important resources is water. Everyone needs to protect it, or one day we could run out! Try one of these ways to save water at your own home.

CHOICES -- DO ONE:

- Use less water by taking shorter baths or showers for one week. Did you know that for every minute you shower, you use about five gallons of water? That means if you take a 10-minute shower, you've used 50 gallons of water. And a bathtub holds 60 gallons of water! Try to trim your shower time to save water. If you take a bath, fill the tub only half full.
For More FUN: Shower like Cousin Cloudberry for some water-saving fun. »
- OR
- Turn off the faucet when brushing your teeth. An average running faucet uses about two to three gallons per minute. If you left the faucet on for five minutes while you brushed your teeth, that means you wasted nearly 15 gallons of water! Make a sign to put next to the sink to remind your family to do the same.
- OR
- Find three ways to save water. Then team up with your family to make a water-saving plan. Try following the plan for two weeks. Need some ideas to start? Try running the dishwasher only when it's full, or when washing dishes, don't let the water run. What other ideas do you have?

Sing in the Shower like Cousin Cloudberry!
Cousin Cloudberry loves singing in the shower. To save water, she sings a short-shower tune. You can, too. Here's how:
Time how long it takes you to sing your favorite song. Then choose a water-saving length for your shower, and sing for just that amount of time. For example, Cousin Cloudberry loves the Brownie Smile Song. It takes her one minute to sing, and she wants to take a three-minute shower. So she sings the song three times, then turns off the water!

Add the Badge to Your Journey

When you do step 2, trade ideas with your Brownie friends about all the ways you can love water. Maybe you will even come up with an idea for a Save Water project to do together!

Now that I've earned this badge, I can give service by:

- Helping make my Brownie meeting place clean and green
- Setting up recycling bins at school
- Sharing my natural cleaners with friends and neighbors
